

Auction #10 of the PPIE collection

Lot #81 An apparently complete set of nine poster stamps advertising the Panama Pacific Exposition Writing Paper. Each unused stamp shows a different scene from the fair. Sold on ebay for $13.09

Lot #82 Two volume hardcover book set. "Catalogue Deluxe of the Department of Fine Arts, Panama Pacific International Exposition" edited by John E.D. Trask and J. Nilsen Laurvik. Paul Ender and Co. San Francisco, Publisher. Each volume is approximately 500 pages. Sold on ebay for $194.01

Lot #83 Souvenir Viewbook. "Views of the Panama Pacific International Exposition San Francisco 1915" Published by the Cardinell-Vincent Co 579 Market St. San Francisco. This was also a prolific publisher of postcards, some of which are reproduced in this book. A nice adjunct to a PPIE postcard collection. 48 pages, including many images of the individual state exposition buildings. Sold on ebay for $27.28

Lot #85 Cinderella or Poster stamp from the World's Insurance Congress. About 2 inches by 2.5 inches in size. Featuring the Tower of Jewels. Unused. Sold at Live auction for $10

Lot #86 A ten postcard set published in 1977 featuring various stages in the construction of the Panama Canal. Unused. Sold at Live auction for $5.

Lot #87 Wooden postcard. Union Lumber Company. Unused. Sold at live auction for $15.

Lot #88 Real photo postcard showing a Mercer racing car from the Panama Pacific Road Race. Published by the American Industrial Photo Co. San Francisco, CA. Sold on ebay for $55.99

Lot #89 Hand colored postcard. #18 published by the Chas. Weidner 787 Market St. San Francisco. "The California Building" Unused. Sold at live auction for $7

Lot #90 Hand colored postcard. #27 published by the Chas. Weidner 787 Market St. San Francisco. "Main Entrance and Tower of Jewels. Night Illumination" Unused. Sold at live auction for $8.

1042nd meeting of the Pacific Coast Numismatic Society

8:00PM Wednesday, January 22, 2003

Knights of Columbus Hall, 2800 Taraval St. at 38th Ave. San Francisco

Phil Nordin

Philippine Guerilla Money of World War II

Pacific Coast Numismatic Society
Box 194271 San Francisco, CA 94119-4271
Bulletin Editor: Michael Wehner

Please join us at our next meeting to hear Phil Nordin tell us about "Philippine Guerilla Money of World War II".

1040st Meeting December 19, 2002 Holiday Party

The traditional Holiday Party was well attended by members this year. Members of the San Francisco Coin Club were also invited, adding to the festivities. The potluck dinner was delicious with many tasty morsels including the famous Strazzorino cherries!

PCNS 2003 Officeholders

For 2003, the PCNS officers are

Michael Wehner, President

Sarah Nordin, Vice President

Steve Huston, Treasurer

Herb Miles, Secretary

Phil Nordin, Board Member

Larry Reppeteau, Board Member

Rick Webster, Board Member

Gordon Donnell, President Ex Officio

Thanks to all for volunteering their time and efforts.

Raffle

Due to a generous donation of foreign tokens and medals to the Society by Jerry Schimmel, we were able to have a last minute raffle at the Holiday Party. Seven prizes were awarded to seven different winners. However, details are unrecorded.

2002 Literary Contest

The results of the 2002 PCNS Literary Contest are:

1st place: Larry Reppeteau Sentimental Magazine and Its Medals

2nd place: Herb Miles "The Invisible Empire", the Ku Klux Klan, or How to Get a Cool Uniform Which You Can Wear at Night and Scare all the Superstitious Adults and Children and No one will Know it's You

3rd place: Michael Wehner Collecting Video Arcade Tokens

Congratulations to Larry and special thanks to the Judging Committee: Phil Nordin, Jerry Schimmel and Cal Wood. Larry will be presented with an engraved silver medal.

2003 Literary Contest

With a successful conclusion of the 2002 Literary Contest, the Board has approved that this be an annual activity. To get on a schedule for an awards presentation at the June banquet, an accelerated schedule for this year's papers contest has been approved. It is as follows:

April 23, 2003: Deadline for submission

May 31, 2003: Completion of judging

June banquet: Presentation of awards.

Criteria for judging submitted papers are the same as in past years and summarized below:

1. Originality (0-12 points) Was the information presented new? Was the subject presented in a new light? Did the author interpret existing facts in an independent, individual, fresh way?
2. Research (0-6 points) Did the article contain new facts uncovered by the author? Did the author include data from an appropriate number of sources? Did the author uncover previously unused or seldom-used sources of information?
3. Numismatic Information (0-8 points) Was the material presented interesting and useful to numismatists?
4. Scope and coverage (0-5 points) Was the subject covered adequately?
5. Reader appeal (0-6 points) Is the article interesting? Was the information well organized and clearly presented? Were illustrations provided where needed? Were references to other works adequate?

Potential authors are urged to consider submitting a paper. Further information may be obtained from the Editor at the address above.

New Members

Please extend a warm welcome to Tim Lobstein and Armand DeAngelis as new members to the Society.